

Instruct™ for Faculty Use

Extend the Reach of Your Classroom Instruction

Many college students on campus lack well-honed foundational skills like information literacy and critical thinking. While you know your students need support in these areas, it is often challenging to find class time to address them.

Instruct addresses the growing needs of librarians, faculty, and students, providing high-quality, standards-aligned instructional materials on information literacy and critical thinking skills. Instruct is ideal for supplementing your classroom instruction, online teaching, and student remediation needs.
